What you need to know

- A taxpayer is entitled to a refundable tax credit against South Carolina Individual Income Tax for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly-traded securities, not exceeding $11,000 per child, for tuition payments to an eligible school for an exceptional needs child within their custody.
- To qualify for the 2022 Parental Refundable Credit, you must have made tuition payments between January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022.
- The minimum 2022 Parental Refundable Credit cap limit is $2 million and can rise as high as $5 million depending on the amount of donations received by Exceptional SC in 2022.
- This credit is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.
- If you were pre-approved for the Parental Refundable Credit, the SCDOR will mail you a Parental Refundable Credit Approval Notice informing you of your tentatively approved credit amount.
- You may not claim this credit until you have received the pre-approval notice.
- The SCDOR will automatically place credit applications on the credit waiting list if we receive them after the 2022 Parental Refundable Credit cap has been awarded.
- If you are placed on the credit waiting list, the SCDOR will email you a waiting list notification.
- If a qualifying student within the custody of a taxpayer receives a grant from Exceptional SC, then the taxpayer may only claim a credit equal to the difference of $11,000 or the cost of tuition, whichever is lower, and the amount of the grant.
- Any changes in the information you reported in your application process could result in changes to your tentatively approved credit amount. Report the reduced credit amount on the I-361 and on line 22d of your SC1040.
- An increase in credit is not available. All available funds are allocated during the original application review.
