SCOPE: An Information Letter is a document issued for the purpose of disseminating general information or information concerning an administrative pronouncement.

Information Letters issued to disseminate general information have no precedential value and do not represent the official position of the Department. Information Letters designed as administrative pronouncements represent the official advisory opinion of the Department.

The South Carolina Department of Revenue is providing relief to taxpayers who have businesses in South Carolina whose operations have been affected by tornadoes occurring in South Carolina on August 16, 1994, and to those taxpayers whose returns are prepared by tax professionals affected by the tornadoes.

Affected taxpayers may be eligible for the following relief as a result of the tornadoes:

1. Extensions of time to file tax returns and pay taxes.
2. Suspension of the enforced collection of any assessed liability of the taxpayer.
3. Waiver of any penalties due as a result of any extensions, or suspension of collection activities granted by the Department of Revenue.

4. Replacement copies of tax returns, free of charge, for tax returns destroyed as a result of the tornadoes.

Other relief may be available depending on the taxpayer's particular circumstances and will be considered on a case by case basis.

Taxpayers affected by the tornadoes who are seeking tax relief should call the South Carolina Department of Revenue at 803-737-4873 for further information.

All extension requests related to the tornadoes should be sent in writing to the following address:
