

Chapter 9

Exemptions

A. Exemptions Authorized under the Sales and Use Tax Law (Chapter 36 of Title 12)

The South Carolina sales and use tax law contains numerous exemptions.<sup>1</sup> As a general rule, tax exemption statutes are strictly construed against the taxpayer.<sup>2</sup> This rule of strict construction simply means that constitutional and statutory language will not be strained or liberally construed in the taxpayer's favor.<sup>3</sup>

There are two types of exemptions provided under South Carolina's sales and use tax law: (1) partial exemptions and (2) full exemptions. The following pages briefly describe South Carolina's sales and use tax exemptions.

Partial Exemptions

Partial exemptions limit or "cap" the amount of tax.<sup>4</sup> The local sales and use taxes collected by the Department do not apply to sales that are subject to a limit or cap under Code Section 12-36-2110.

A maximum tax of $500 is imposed on sales of the following:<sup>5</sup>

- Aircraft – including unassembled aircraft assembled by the purchaser
- Motor vehicles – including equipment supplied or installed on a firefighting vehicle at the time of purchase<sup>6</sup>
- Motorcycles
- Boats, including personal watercrafts such as jet skis

<sup>5</sup> South Carolina Code §12-36-2110(A). However, certain items, such as motor vehicles and motorcycles, are subject to an infrastructure maintenance fee (instead of a sales or use tax) upon first registration with the SC Department of Motor Vehicles. See South Carolina Code §§56-3-627 and 12-36-2120(83). See also SC Information Letter #17-10 (revised). This information letter contains information concerning whether an item is subject to sales and use tax or the infrastructure maintenance fee.

<sup>6</sup> South Carolina Code §12-36-2110(E). See SC Revenue Ruling #18-12 for information on sales of fire trucks and firefighting equipment.

- Trailers and semi-trailers that can be pulled only by a truck tractor. This does not include house trailers and campers as defined in South Carolina Code §56-3-710.<sup>7</sup>
- Horse trailers. This does not include house trailers and campers as defined in South Carolina Code §56-3-710.
- Recreational vehicles, including tent campers, travel trailers, park trailers, motor homes, and fifth wheels
- Self-propelled light construction equipment with compatible attachments. The equipment's net engine horse power must not exceed 160.
- Fire safety education trailers

The cap also applies to leases of the above items provided the lease is in writing and the lease has a stated term and remains in force for a period in excess of 90 continuous days. The taxpayer may pay the total tax due at the time the lease is executed or by installments with each lease payment until the $500 is paid.

Also, a maximum tax of $300 is imposed on sales of musical instruments or office equipment sold to religious organizations.<sup>8</sup>

Further, the sale of a manufactured home is subject to a maximum tax of $300 if the home meets or exceeds certain energy efficiency requirements specifically outlined in the law.<sup>9</sup> If the home does not meet these energy efficiency requirements, the sale of the home is subject to a maximum tax of $300 plus 2% of the taxable basis or measure that exceeds $6,000.<sup>10</sup> (Note: The sale of a manufactured home from July 1, 2009 through July 1, 2024 will be exempt from the entire tax if the manufactured home has been designated by the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the United States Department of Energy as meeting or exceeding each agency's energy saving efficiency requirements or has been designated as meeting or exceeding such requirements under each agency's ENERGY STAR program.<sup>11</sup>)

See Chapter 10 of this manual for more information regarding maximum tax items.

<sup>7</sup> Sales of utility trailers that are capable of being pulled by an automobile, minivan, or pick-up truck, and that are not recreational vehicles, fire safety education trailers or horse trailers, are not eligible for the $500 maximum tax. See SC Revenue Ruling #14-2.

In addition, Code Section 12-36-2120(62) provides an exemption for 70% of the gross proceeds of the rental or lease of portable toilets;<sup>12</sup> and Code Section 12-36-2120(34) exempts 50% of the gross proceeds of a modular home regulated under Chapter 43 of Title 23.<sup>13</sup>

Full Exemptions

Although it may be determined that a transaction is subject to sales and use tax, a particular exemption in the statute may exempt it from sales and use tax in South Carolina. South Carolina Code §§12-36-2120 and 12-36-2130 contain numerous full exemptions. The local sales and use taxes collected by the Department do not apply to sales which are exempt from the state sales and use tax.<sup>14</sup>

The following briefly describes South Carolina's full sales and use tax exemptions. For purposes of this discussion, South Carolina's full exemptions are divided into the following categories:

- Government Related Exemptions
- Business Related Exemptions
- Agricultural Exemptions
- Educational Exemptions
- General Public Good Exemptions
- Alternative Energy Exemptions

The following provides a list of the full exemptions in each of the above categories and a list of relevant statutes, court cases, regulations, and advisory opinions for each exemption (if any). The list of statutes, court cases, regulations, and advisory opinions is not all-inclusive.

<sup>14</sup> All sales and purchases exempt from the state sales and use tax under South Carolina Code §§12-36-2120 and 12-36-2130 are exempt from local sales and use tax administered and collected by the Department on behalf of local jurisdictions, except for sales of unprepared food under South Carolina Code §12-36-2120(75). South Carolina Code §12-36-2120(75) specifically states that the exemption for unprepared food only applies to the state sales and use tax. Therefore, such sales are subject to local sales and use taxes unless the local sales and use tax specifically exempts sales of unprepared food. See SC Regulation 117-337 and Exhibit A to Chapter 12, South Carolina Information Letter #20-2.

Caution: The exemptions below are briefly described. See the statute cited for the specific exemption details. If a transaction does not squarely fall within the requirements of an exemption statute and applicable regulations, the exemption does not apply.

<sup>15</sup> There are several provisions in the South Carolina Code of Laws that are not codified in Chapter 36 of Title 12 that provide an exemption from the sales tax, the use tax, or both. Some of these provisions exempt a specific transaction and some exempt a specific entity. In the case of an exemption provision involving a specific entity, each statutory provision must be reviewed to determine if sales to the entity are exempt, sales by the entity are exempt, or if both sales to and sales by the entity are exempt. In addition, there are several provisions of federal law that provide an exemption from state and local taxes to certain specific entities. Each of these federal statutory provisions must also be reviewed to determine if sales to the entity are exempt, sales by the entity are exempt, or if both sales to and sales by the entity are exempt. Note that the list (in italics) of transactions that are prohibited from being taxed by U.S. or State Constitutional provisions or federal or state law is not all-inclusive.

South Carolina Tax Commission*, 307 S.C. 6, 413 S.E.2d. 810 (1992) that the exemption for religious publications was unconstitutional. Therefore, sales of religious publications are subject to the sales and use tax, unless otherwise exempt under the law. For more information, see South Carolina Information Letter #92-8.

<sup>32</sup> This Attorney General Opinion concluded that “preprints” were an integral part of a newspaper; therefore, the sale or purchase of preprints for incorporation into a newspaper were exempt.

<sup>36</sup> An uncodified provision of the legislation that enacted this exemption in 2007 provided that the exemption would be phased in by reducing the rate of tax based on revenue projections by the Board of Economic Advisors. This uncodified provision was later amended in Act 32 of 2011 to establish a new phase in of the exemption as follows: The rate of tax imposed on the gross proceeds of sales of items meeting the requirements of the exemption in Code Section 12-36-2120(74) is five and one-half percent for such sales from July 1, 2007. The rate of tax imposed on the gross proceeds of sales of items meeting the requirements of the exemption in Code Section 12-36-2120(74) is three and one-half percent for such sales from July 1, 2011. The rate of tax imposed on the gross proceeds of sales of items meeting the requirements of the exemption in Code Section 12-36-2120(74) is one and three-quarters percent for such sales from July 1, 2012. Effective January 1, 2013, the sales tax exemption on the gross proceeds of sales of items meeting the requirements of Code Section 12-36-2120(74) is fully implemented. Local sales and use taxes continued to apply until the exemption was fully implemented. Effective January 1, 2013, sales meeting the requirements of the exemption are fully exempt from both state and local sales and use taxes.

<sup>37</sup> SC Revenue Ruling #16-8 clarifies that this exemption includes sales of vegetable seeds, fruit seeds, vegetable plants, and fruit plants to individuals to grow food in a home garden for personal use and consumption.

<sup>38</sup> On May 4, 2009, the Supreme Court of South Carolina ruled that South Carolina Code §12-36-2120(76), which established an annual sales tax holiday on the Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving for handguns (as defined in South Carolina Code §16-23-10(1)), rifles and shotguns, was unconstitutional. The American Petroleum Institute and BP Products North America Inc. v. South Carolina Department of Revenue, et al., 382 S.C. 572, 677 S.E.2d 16 (2009). However, the General Assembly enacted a temporary proviso that established a sales tax holiday on November 26th and 27th of 2010 for handguns (as defined in South Carolina Code §16-23-10(1)), rifles and shotguns.

<sup>39</sup> In 2008, the General Assembly enacted in South Carolina Code §12-36-2120(77) an annual sales tax holiday during October (beginning in 2009 and ending 2018) for certain energy efficient products (provided certain revenue growth forecasts were met). However, on May 4, 2009, the Supreme Court of South Carolina held in The American Petroleum Institute and BP Products North America, Inc. v. South Carolina Department of Revenue, et al., 382 S.C. 16, 677 S.E.2d 16 (2009) that the act (Act No. 338 of 2008) was unconstitutional. Therefore, the exemption in South Carolina Code §12-36-2120(77) is no longer valid.

<sup>40</sup> This exemption was phased-in based on the annual general fund growth as determined by the Board of Economic Advisors (“BEA”). On February 19, 2014, the BEA notified the Department that the requirements were met to implement this exemption. Accordingly, for July 1, 2014 - June 30, 2015, 50% of the gross proceeds of sales of qualifying sales or purchases were exempt from the State and local sales and use taxes. Qualifying sales or purchases made on or after July 1, 2015 are fully exempt from the State and local sales and use taxes. See SC Information Letter #14-4. When completing the Sales and Use Tax Return (ST-3), a taxpayer will reflect sales or purchases qualifying for this exemption on “the worksheet” under the “Allowable Deductions” section. The taxable gross proceeds after all deductions will be subject to both the State and applicable local sales and use taxes.

B. Other Sales and Use Tax Exemptions Authorized by the General Assembly

In addition to the sales and use tax exemptions authorized by the General Assembly in the sales and use tax law,<sup>42</sup> the General Assembly has authorized sales and use tax exemptions in other provisions of the South Carolina Code of Laws. While the code sections authorizing these exemptions are listed above under the exemption for “Transactions that are prohibited from being taxed by U.S. or State Constitutional provisions or federal or state law,” the following will provide additional details about these exemptions.

Some of these exemption provisions exempt a specific transaction and some exempt a specific entity. In the case of an exemption provision involving a specific entity, each statutory provision must be reviewed to determine if sales to the entity are exempt, sales by the entity are exempt, or if both sales to and sales by the entity are exempt. Please note that the list of transactions that are prohibited from being taxed by state law is not all-inclusive.

Caution: The exemptions below are briefly described. See the statute cited for the specific exemption details. If a transaction does not squarely fall within the requirements of an exemption statute and applicable regulations, the exemption does not apply.

<sup>41</sup> This exemption is only valid for sales or purchases from July 1, 2009 through July 1, 2024. See Act No. 354 of 2008 and Act No. 138 of 2020, Section 2. Manufactured homes not meeting the energy efficiency requirements for this exemption, but meeting other energy efficiency requirements in South Carolina Code §12-36-2110(B), will only be subject to the $300.00 maximum tax.

In addition, the exemption provision states that it is the intent of the General Assembly that a regional health services district incur no tax liability to the State or any of its political subdivisions except to the extent that sales and use taxes may be payable on the purchases of goods or equipment by the regional health services district.<sup>45</sup>
