

Chapter 8

Exclusions

If a transaction is excluded from the tax, it is not subject to sales and use tax in South Carolina. The exclusions are found in several sections of the sales and use tax statute and apply to a variety of transactions. While a transaction must squarely fall within the requirements of an exclusion in order for the tax not to apply, exclusions are liberally construed. In other words, if there is doubt as to whether a transaction falls within the requirements of an exclusion, the tax will not be imposed.

The following provides a list of the exclusions and a list of relevant court cases, regulations, and advisory opinions for each exclusion (if any). The list of court cases, regulations, and advisory opinions is not all-inclusive. The regulations and advisory opinions can be found via the Department’s website (dor.sc.gov).

Caution: The exclusions below are briefly described. See the statute cited for the specific exclusion details. If a transaction does not squarely fall within the requirements of an exclusion statute and applicable regulations, the exclusion does not apply.
