INSTRUCTIONS

The South Carolina Earned Income Tax Credit is available for full-year resident individuals. For tax year 2020, the non-refundable credit is equal to 62.50% of the federal Earned Income Tax Credit allowed the taxpayer.

The credit is phased in over six years until fully phased in for tax year 2023.

Example: On their 2020 federal return, Taxpayer A's federal Earned Income Tax Credit was $1,190.

By multiplying $1,190 by 62.50% (the EITC amount allowed by South Carolina in 2020), the taxpayer's South Carolina EITC amount is $744.

Social Security Privacy Act Disclosure

It is mandatory that you provide your Social Security Number on this tax form if you are an individual taxpayer. 42 U.S.C. 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's Social Security Number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SCDOR must provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your Social Security Number is used for identification purposes.

The Family Privacy Protection Act

Under the Family Privacy Protection Act, the collection of personal information from citizens by the SCDOR is limited to the information necessary for the SCDOR to fulfill its statutory duties. In most instances, once this information is collected by the SCDOR, it is protected by law from public disclosure. In those situations where public disclosure is not prohibited, the Family Privacy Protection Act prevents such information from being used by third parties for commercial solicitation purposes.
